Constantinople, December 27. N. S.

THE Accounts we have of the Incurſion and Ravage which the German Troops lately made in the Province of Boſnia, have given a new Allarm to this Court; and this is encreaſed by the Confirmation that comes from all hands, of the Peace being concluded among the Chriſtian Princes, which has occaſioned ſeveral Conſults among the Ottoman Miniſters, in which 'twas propoſed to endeavour to make a Truce with the Emperor; but it being thought Diſhonourable for the Port to make any Advances which might look as if they ſued for a Peace, 'twas at laſt reſolved to continue the War, and accordingly new Taxes are projected, and the richeſt of the Turks will be obliged to advance conſiderable Loans; Orders are ſent to the ſeveral Baſſa's to make Levies in the Provinces they are Governors of; and 3000 old Soldiers are to be ſent for from Egypt, who are much eſteemed here; A general Pardon will be granted to the Banditti's and Robbers of Natolia, and their Propoſals to ſerve the Port accepted, with this Encouragement, That they ſhall be formed into a Body, under the Command of a conſiderable Officer of their own. 'Tis intended likewiſe to augment our Sea Force, and the Grand Signior has ſent to the Governments of Algiers, Tunis and Tripoly, to fit out a Squadron of their beſt Ships, to join his Fleet the next Summer.

Rome, Jan. 28. Monſieur Gay, the Envoy of Poland to this Court, having had Audience of Leave, is returned home; with a Brief from the Pope to the King his Maſter, who therein gives him the Stile of King of Poland. We lately received by an Expreſs, an account of the Death of Cardinal Conti at Ancona, in the 80th year of his Age: He was Biſhop of that Place and of Sabina, which latter has been already beſtowed upon Cardinal Carpegna. This makes a 5th vacancy in the Colledge of Cardinals.

Madrid, Jan. 30. Some days ago their Majeſties were Entertained by the Conde de Lemos with an Opera; after which the Conde gave the Court a Collation, and (according to the Cuſtom here of making ſome acknowledgment of the Prince's Favour, when he is pleaſed to Viſit a Subject) he preſented to the King a Sword ſet with Diamonds, and to the Queen a very rich Jewel. The Marquis de Mortara, Don Gaſpar Giron, and Don Alonzo Fernandes Maurique, are made Major-domo's to his Majeſty; and the Baron d'Alvi Vice-Roy of Majorca. The Marquis de Caſtel Urrios, his Catholick Majeſties Ambaſſador in Portugal, is recalled from thence, and will be ſent with the ſame Character to the Court of France.

Stockholme, Jan. 31. The King prepares for the Journey, which, according to Cuſtom, he is to make ſoon after his Coronation, to viſit the ſeveral Provinces of this Kingdom, and it's thought his Majeſty will begin it ſome time the next month. Monſieur Juel, the King of Denmark's Miniſter at this Court, has had Audience of the King; and has ſince had ſeveral Meetings with the Commiſſioners that have been appointed, to confer with him upon the Propoſals he has made from the King his Maſter to this Court. A Marriage is concluded between the Princeſs Hedwig Sophia, eldeſt Siſter to the preſent King of Sweden, and the Duke of Holſtein-Gottorp, who is ſhortly expected here.

Dantzicke, Febr. 13. The laſt Letters we received from Warſaw confirm the former Accounts we had, that the Primate was expected in that City to make his Submiſſion to the King of Poland, which has, for ſome time put off his Majeſties Journey hither. The ſame Letters add, that the King had ſent out his Circular Letters, in order to the meeting of the General Dyet on the 16th of April, and that his Majeſty had appointed the General of Great-Poland, and Under-General of Lithuania, to endeavour the putting a ſtop to the Diſorders in the Dutchy of Lithuania, and if poſſible, to bring the two differing Parties of Sapieha and Oginsky, to a friendly Agreement, that all things may be quiet againſt the meeting of the ſaid Dyet. Several Perſons of Quality are arrived here from Warſaw to wait, as is ſuppoſed, for the Queen of Poland's arrival.

Vienna, Febr. 18. Frequent Conſultations are held at this Court, in order to take ſuch Meaſures as may enable our Forces to appear in the Field very early the next Campagne: Accordingly the Officers are daily receiving Money for their Recruits, Proviſions are buying up to be ſent to Hungary againſt the Spring; and Care is taken that the Artillery may be ready about the ſame time.
